2) Attention is invited to office note on page 5 para 18a in Gen file 141/14.

As Officials mobilized for regimental duty stand on different footing from the Officials deputed on active service, the Comptroller's contention seems to be untenable. There was no need for Mr Searle to apply for furlough at all in contemplation of the privilege leave as he could draw half his salary even without it and could also count the period towards pension which he could not fully do so under certain conditions as per art 276 M.S.R. of the period was treated on furlough. The D.S.P. has not sent copy of Comptroller's Objection Slip.

Offg. Inspector General of Police in Mysore.

To

D. M. Narasinga Rao, Esqr., B.A. B.L., Secretary to the Government of H. H. the Maharaja of Mysore, General Department.

Sir,

With reference to Govt. Pro. No.J.1857-8/Pol.42-15-8 dated the 12th November 1915, anent Mr. H. G. Searle, acting 1st class Inspector now on active service, I have the honour to state that on the Comptroller being requested to make the necessary arrangements for the disbursement of the furlough allowances of Mr. Searle, in accordance with the terms of Govt. Pro.No.G. 12889-939/G.M.141-14-1136 dated 20th May 1915, that officer drew attention to Govt. Pro. No.G.9327-75/G.P.4-15-33 dated 4th January 1916, whereupon Government were, in this office letter No.4608/593 dated the 25th February 1916, addressed in regard to the payment of the leave allowances to Mrs. Searle, which was sanctioned in Pro. No. J.3646-7/Pol.152-15-2 dated the 9th March 1916.

2. A reference was then made to Government by this office (letter No.5314/668 dated the 28/29th March 1916) requesting Government to accord sanction to the leave Mr. Searle was entitled to, which was done in Pro. No. J.4243-4/Pol.28-15-20 dated 2/3rd May 1916.

3. The period of 15 months' combined leave thus sanctioned having expired on 10th February 1917, Mr. Searle was asked to submit an application for the extension of the leave, and he has applied for another year's furlough. The Comptroller, however, states in his docket No.8713/T.A.M.1978 dated the 11th instant that Mr. Searle is not entitled to an extension of furlough and that the period of extension has therefore to be treated as leave without allowances.

4. I am afraid that there has been some mistake in dealing with this matter, after Government were pleased to 7(J) permit Mr. Searle to volunteer for active service. The Order of 20th May 1915 lays down that "A Government servant permitted to volunteer for active service will be given furlough pay, plus the pay and allowances of army rank. Absence at the front will not be regarded as an interruption of duty for leave already earned, and will count for pension but not for leave". If I understand this rightly, I believe an officer permitted to enlist on active service should be treated as on duty ~~and not leave~~ but with [redacted] this difference - that he will, while on such service, be entitled to get not the full pay of his appointment but the furlough allowances on such pay. From the latter portion of the Order quoted above, it is clear that it was not intended that the furlough or other leave at the credit of the officer should be set off towards the period of his absence on active service; for in that case an officer who had no furlough at his credit at the time of his enlistment would not get any allowance at all; and this certainly could not have been the intention of Govern- 7(L) -ment. The proceedings of 4th January 1916, cited by the Comptroller, apparently apply only to officials who are volunteers in the army and mobilized for regimental duty, but not to officials permitted to volunteer for active service. This aspect of the matter seems to have been overlooked while obtaining sanction of Government to the 15 months' combined leave in favour of Mr. Searle, and I therefore request that you may be so good as to obtain orders modifying the terms of 7(N) Proceedings No. J.4243-4/Pol.28-15-20 dated 2/3rd May 1916, and extending the period of Mr. Searle's deputation on active service for another year, for the present, and also authorizing the Comptroller to issue orders for the disbursement of his furlough allowances.

5. The favour of very early action is solicited, as Mrs. Searle has not been given the allowances since 10th February 1917.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

Inspector General of Police.

17th April 1917 from the I.G.P. Police in Mysore requesting, for reasons stated, that the order sanctioning leave to Mr. Scarle may be modified and that the period of his deputation for active service may be extended for another year for the present.

Order No. J 47734

It is stated that the leave granted to Mr. Scarle having expired on 10-2-1917 he applied for another year's furlough but the Comptroller has intimated that as Mr. Scarle is not entitled to an extension of furlough the period of extension should be treated as leave without allowances. The I.G. represents that the order of 4-1-16 applies to officials who are volunteers in the army and mobilised for Regimental duty and not to officials permitted to volunteer for active service (like Mr. Searle) who are governed by the provisions of the G.O. of the 20th May 1915 and that according to this latter order Mr. Searle is entitled
